ATTENTION, UNION REPUBLICANS!

To day, Saturday, September 29th, 1866, is the last day for being assessed. All citizens entitled to a vote, (except those voting on age) must be assessed. Every Union Republican is earnestly requested to see to his own assessment, and that of any of his acquaintances not yet assessed, friendly to the Republican cause.

THE LATE CONVENTION.

Social, Moral and Political Aspects of the Great Gathering—Pittsburgh as a Center of Loyal Sentiment and Faith—The National Prominence and Reputation Given to the City.

No feature of the great gathering of the Boys in Blue and the loyal citizens who desired to co-operate with them—a gathering which has made this week forever memorable in the history of Pittsburgh—was more worthy of remark and attentive consideration than the fraternal unanimity of feeling which everywhere seemed to prevail. If the people of the city cordially welcomed the visitors from every part who thronged our streets and public places, what shall we say of the reciprocal enthusiasm of those to whom that welcome was extended? They were guests whom it was our duty to delight to honor, and they must have felt we would have been recreant to our well known principles had we neglected to show them how high we held them in our estimation. But the whole-souled, hearty manner in which our hospitalities were appreciated, and the genial way in which these strangers whom we entertained sought to, and succeeded in, meeting and pleasantly neutralizing our efforts to treat them worthily, by the ardent sincerity of their acknowledgments, was a delightful episode in human intercourse, not to be readily forgotten.

We cannot refrain from again adverting to the moral aspects of this grand and glorious demonstration. It was a practical exposition of the political views, feelings and intentions of the men by whom the war was fought and won. It was a clarion note of apprehended danger that will be heard and heeded over the whole land. It was a terrible voice of warning to an unscrupulous and ambitious faction that would seek to subvert our most cherished rights and to bring to nought all the dearly bought results of a sanguinary civil conflict. This time it was not a clique of aspiring officers of the regular army which spoke; neither was it the wire working of hide-bound or reckless politicians, who would sacrifice the best interests of the country for a Naval Office or a Foreign Mission. It was, really and truly, the Boys in Blue who were heard from this time. Most of the direction of affairs they conceded to their former leaders in the field, in the same spirit as they had yielded obedience to them when in active service. It was a recognition of the superior genius or talent or tact of those who could assume and maintain a supremacy of military rank. Men who can command in one capacity will be allowed to do so in others. But there was no idea of inequality or caste in this. The men who had shouldered muskets met, without distinction, men who had worn their double-starred shoulder straps. A private soldier of admitted intelligence and education was chosen temporary Chairman of the Convention, and many others occupied prominent and responsible positions on committees. All were once more citizens—once more come to the same level, except where native ability or superior shrewdness irresistibly asserted itself.

The people of Pittsburgh have a right to feel proud of the wide spread reputation for sterling loyalty which caused it to be selected as the place of meeting for this representative congregation of the flower of our late Union armies. Thousands of them knew by experience how warm and encouraging their reception here would be. All knew by report that, if they could find an inspiring welcome anywhere, they were sure to find it in the Iron City. And they were not disappointed. Wherever they came from; whether from various portions of our own State, from States of the East or the West, or from those Southern States that had partially remained true to the Government and Constitution, they found the right hand of fellowship held forth to them, and a sympathy evinced in their behalf that was almost universal.

What good we did unto them shall return to us an hundred fold. In making them our honored guests, in showering upon them every courtesy and kindness in our power, we made for Pittsburgh a name that will long be green in the memories of the best men that ever congregated from all parts of the country in any one place. We have extended the fame of the noble pre-eminence we had earned, as a law and Union loving community, to every corner of the States whose favorable opinion is worth having, and have established our city as the centre of that uncompromising spirit through which the Nation and its liberties were saved in war and which we, at least, have resolved shall not be permitted to stagnate or die out in a time of perilous and unsettled peace. Our position will henceforth be known and recognized, and it is a position that will be glorious to us in our own time and shed lustre upon our posterity in generations yet to come.

Last Chance to be Assessed.

This is the last day upon which assessments can legally be made, and it is the imperative duty of every qualified Union voter to see that he is assessed, in order that his right to vote may be unquestioned. The following are the Assessors of this city and Allegheny:

PITTSBURGH—First Ward—Samuel Patterson, 88 Liberty street.
Second Ward—Alexander Aiken, 111 Fourth street.
Third Ward—John Quinn, 115 Ross street.
Fourth Ward—A. P. Thompson, 84 Penn street.
Fifth Ward—Joseph Irwin, 84 Pike street.
Sixth Ward—Wm. Snore, 49 Logan street.
Seventh Ward—Captain Wm. Mays, Miller street, near Center Avenue.
Eighth Ward—John J. Stoer, corner of McGee and Gibbon streets.
Ninth Ward—James McCune, 765 Penn street.
Tenth Ward—Willard Leonard, corner of Seventh street and Cherry alley.
ALLEGHENY—First Ward—Simeon Burford, Rebecca street, near Chartiers.
Second Ward—John Sterritt, corner of Federal and Shanapin streets.
Third Ward—Robert R. Ray, 35 Boyle street.
Fourth Ward—James Graham, 252 Robinson street.

MR. BEECHER REPENTANT.—It appears that the congregation of Mr. Beecher at Plymouth Church, were rather too much for him, in his late efforts at swinging round the corner with A. J., for from the latest appearances, he has either lost faith in "My Policy" and the honesty of Mr. Johnson, or else his congregation have taken him so severely to task that he wishes to swing back to the old place. A New York dispatch of Monday says: Henry Ward Beecher yesterday offered prayer for the President at Plymouth Church, asking that he might have ministered unto him, as from the Spirit of God, that wisdom which is profitable to direct, and be saved from his wicked counsellors and led into the right way.

—THE Cincinnati Commercial, in its newly awakened spirit of radicalism, speaks rather severely of some of President Johnson's supporters. In paying its compliments to "Brick Pomeroy," it says that the "infamy and recklessness of his blackguardism brought him to the offended notice of the public nostrils;" and further, "that he is a stink of the most pungent and aggressive nature." "Brick" must discover some "good apothecary" from whom to obtain a little "civet" before he visits the office of his complimentary contemporary.

—Bismarck who was formerly a Major of Cuirassiers, has been appointed to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, and there is a peerage in prospect. Slow promotion for a man of his mark; For we all know that the real King of Prussia is Bismarck!

—GOV. BROWNLOW, who is still at the Burnet House, Cincinnati, is slowly recovering from a severe attack of cholera morbus. It is a pity he cannot at the same time be cured of his chronic diarrhœa of vituperative language.

GENERAL SICKLES.—Major General Daniel E. Sickles has been appointed by the President as Colonel of the Forty-second United States Infantry, one of the new regiments recently authorized by act of Congress. This appointment was intended as an honor, and should be regarded as an official recognition of General Sickles's services to his country. Many of our volunteer Major Generals of high fighting reputation have returned to their positions as line and staff officers in regiments of the regular army.

IMMENSE RECEIPTS FROM CUSTOMS

The President Does Not favor the Amendment.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, September 28, 1866.

General Dix

Arrived in the city this morning and obtained an interview with the President before the meeting of the Cabinet. He received his commission, and accepted it as Minister to France. He afterward obtained an interview with Secretary Seward.

Cabinet Meeting.

There was a full Cabinet meeting to day, which lasted for some time. It is claimed that the business under consideration related almost wholly to removals and appointments.

Army Appointments.

In response to the general anxiety among the applicants for position in the reorganized army, nothing further can be said than that the list of field appointments, though understood to be nearly completed, is not ready for announcement. The country will be glad to learn that under the careful supervision of Gen. Grant, such selections are being made from the immense number of applicants as will insure the best officers. Every man will be of proved valor, efficiency and integrity, and his appointment will be on these grounds alone, no political views or influences having the slightest weight in the matter.

The Public Domain.

Returns from the Receiver of Land Office at Tallahasse, Florida, show that during August there was a considerable number of homestead entries, with assurances of a largely increased business for the present month.

The Receipts for Customs

At the three leading ports for the week ending September 22d, were over three millions in gold.

The President Does Not Favor the Amendment.

The prominent friends of the Administration deny the story that the President in any way favors the Constitutional Amendment. They declare that the rumor was set afloat for political effect.

National Bank Organized.

The Ridgely National Bank of Springfield, Illinois, has been organized, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, without circulation. The latter bank has been designated as a public depository.

All Enlisted Men

Of the general service, now employed in the War Department and its branches, as clerks, messengers, &c., are to be assigned to regiments of the regular army. They will, however, be retained in their positions. The assignments are being made for the purpose of retaining them in the service, as the army bill passed at the late session of Congress does not provide for the maintainence of the general service branch of the army. The change in pay and allowances of men thus assigned will not be materially affected.

WASHINGTON, September 28.

GENERAL DIX.

Gen. Dix had an interview this morning with the President and subsequently with Secretary McCulloch, and will return to New York by this evening's train. Although nothing definite is publicly known upon the subject, several of his personal friends say the probabilities are now that he will retain the position of naval officer of the port of New York. The Times's special says, up to a late hour this evening, no intelligence had been received from General Dix with reference to his acceptance or declination of the French mission. It was freely reported on the street to-day that he had accepted it, but there was no authority for the rumor. There has not been time for a reply in the ordinary course of the mails since the appointment was sent. It is understood here that General Dix was qualified as naval officer of the port of New York, but that does not debar him from the acceptance of the French mission.

The bond of General Dix as naval officer of the port of New York was to-day filed and approved before the Commissioner of Customs, and the commission was delivered to him. The General had separate interviews with the President, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of the Treasury. There is an unauthenticated report that General Dix will hold the office only for a short time, and then accept the mission to France.

CRIMINALS PARDONED.

The President has directed the pardon of Peter Repp, convicted at the September term, 1866, of the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, for passing counterfeit currency, and sentenced to two years imprisonment. The pardon has also been ordered of Benj. F. Clarke, convicted at the April term of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, of passing counterfeit money, and sentenced to imprisonment for one year.

BUSINESS CARDS ON ENVELOPES.

The Postmaster General has recently issued instructions making provisions for the printing of business cards on envelopes in any desirable form or designs, with requests to return letters; provided that not less than five hundred envelopes are ordered, and person wanting them having the cuts or plates prepared for the press from which to have the printing done. Postmasters are to receive the orders on the usual terms, the cost being about the value of the plain envelopes with the addition of amount of the required stamp.

INFORMERS' FEES.

Doubts having been expressed as to whether the schedule of informers' fees, described in the circular of instructions issued by the Treasury Department, August 14th, 1866, is to be applied to the proceeds resulting from forfeit as well as to penalties, the schedule is declared to be, and to have been from the time of issue, applicable to all informers' shares of fines, penalties, forfeitures and proceeds of forfeitures accruing under the provisions of the Internal Revenue law, cited in the above mentioned circular.

THE NAVY.

Lieutenant Commander Allen O. Reed has been detached from duty at the Norfolk Navy Yard, and ordered to the steamer Resaca. Lieutenant Commander Ames has also been ordered to the same vessel.

APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments were made to-day: Collectors—James W. Black, Sixth District, Missouri; Andrew Forrest, Third District, Michigan; John R. Finn, Fourteenth District, Ohio; Walter L. Brekwith, Second District, Michigan; John M. Glover, Third District Missouri. Assessors—W. Warren, Seventh District, Massachusetts; Wm. P. Wells, First District, Michigan; Jonah Pitcher, First District, Indiana; Thomas Allen, Third District, Pennsylvania; Charles Glouse, 11th District, Pennsylvania; Andrew Fulton, Fifteenth District, Pennsylvania; James Meeker, Twelfth District, New York; Alfred B. Getty, Twenty Second District, New York; J. E. Beebe, Third District, Michigan.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28.—The Richings Opera Troupe are creating a great furore at the Academy of Music. The houses are crowded nightly, and the success of the English Opera in this country is established.

Fair in Toronto, C. W.

TORONTO, C. W., September 28.—The Provincial Fair closed to-day. The weather has been fine, the attendance very large, and the exhibition a great success.

A large number of the troops recently arrived are on their way to their destination on the West Peninsula.

A number of the Canadian Ministry are in town.

Murderer Hung.

CINCINNATI, September 28.—Walter P. Watson, for the murder of Captain Menter, was hung at Newport, Kentucky, this afternoon.

Great Musical Triumph.

The extraordinary successes achieved by American enterprise, ingenuity, and skill in various departments of manufacture, are a source of justifiable pride and gratulation to the whole American people. In no special department has this been so signally manifested as in the improvements effected here in the exterior appearance and intrinsic qualities of the pianoforte.

It is difficult in a few eulogistic sentences to say one half that should be said of the transcendent merits of the Steinway Piano. Public performers have indorsed its wonderful strength, resonance and volume of harmonious sound in terms that we could not find language to improve upon. Yet its excellence in the concert room is the least of its recommendations. It is the square, compact instrument, intended for the parlor, that most deserves the warmest meed of praise. For this is claimed a superiority that has never been approached by other manufacturers, and the test of practical experience would seem to justify all the enthusiastic approval that has been lavished upon it.

The patent "Agraffe" attachment, which Steinway & Co. have resolved to introduce into every piano that bears the name of their house, is an improvement the value and importance of which cannot be exaggerated. It gives a freedom and flow, with a delicacy of tone, which has never been equalled by any contrivance heretofore applied. The key board by means of this adjunct, can be fingered with a precision and exquisite gradation of touch that places absolute command of the instrument in the hands of an accomplished player, and enables practicing pupils to overcome with ease difficulties they had often felt were insurmountable. We have stated these facts as plainly and simply as we could. For their corroboration it is only necessary to see and hear what can be accomplished, on such instruments as we have endeavored to describe, at Kleber & Brother's, No. 122 Wood street, who have the sole agency for Steinway's pianos in Pittsburgh.

EMANCIPATION.

The Great Proclamation of Freedom—Celebration by the Colored People at Iron City Park—Frederick Douglass on the Issues of the Day—His Lecture at the City Hall, Etc., Etc.

The colored people of Pittsburgh and Allegheny yesterday celebrated at Iron City Park, what is to them the greatest and most important event of the age—the emancipation of human slavery in America. There was a large attendance, including many white persons of both sexes, and the exercises were very entertaining. The Allegheny Lincoln Guard, Captain W. W. Strange, commanding, and the Lincoln Independent Grays, Captain John W. Jenkins, commanding, both colored military organizations, visited the Park for exercise, and gave a very creditable exhibition of their proficiency at drill. Among the noted gentlemen who were present we noticed the Rev. Dr. John T. Clark, Rev. C. A. Dickey, Hon. Thos. J. Bigham, Jas. Redpath, of the N. Y. Tribune, Prof. S. A. Neal, and Frederick Douglass. Mr. R. J. Davis, the Chief Marshal of the day, directed the procession, which included the colored military, and at nine o'clock, A. M., it proceeded to the Park. The meeting was organized by appointing the Rev John Peck, President. P. S. Jackson, P. S. Sarral, J. Owens and George Knox, Vice Presidents, and Granville Woodson, Rev. William Thomas and John Granage, Secretaries. Brief addresses were then delivered by Hon. Thomas Bigham, Rev. Dr. John T. Clark, and Frederick Douglass, after which an intermission was taken until two o'clock. At that hour the meeting was resumed, and short speeches were made by James Redpath, Esq., Prof. S. A. Neal and Mr. Douglass. Previous to the addresses the Lincoln Independent Greys were presented with an elegant silken national flag. The presentation speech was made by Miss Lawrence, and the gift received and acknowledged by Captain Jenkins. The Allegheny Lincoln Guards were presented with two beautiful wreaths and a portrait of the President, by the ladies of Allegheny.

In the evening at the City Hall in Pittsburgh, a very large audience gathered to hear Mr. Fred. Douglass speak more at length upon the reconstruction question. The Rev. John Peck presided, and Prof. S. A. Neal introduced Mr. Douglass.

SPEECH OF FREDERICK DOUGLASS.

Mr. Douglass said it was not his custom to preface his humble efforts by apologies, but he came from incessant labors and was exceedingly fatigued, and at any rate whatever charm his voice might have in its natural condition, it certainly did not have that charm now. He disclaimed the title of Honorable which had been bestowed upon him by some of his friends. The fondness for titles in this country had awakened the satire of other countries, and it seemed that it was not confined to the whites, but was spared in by the blacks. He did not desire any such titles, and yet he was not sure but what he might one day be a Member of Congress. [Cheers.] He could not hope to present any new thought on the reconstruction question. Indeed it was scarcely necessary to go in search of new truth in the case now before us. Properly speaking there was no such thing as new truth. Error might be old or new, but truth like the eternal is from everlasting to everlasting, and can never pass away, and such a truth was Human Liberty. It was born in man and inscribed on all the faculties and powers of his soul. It was his right, and co-equal with it was the idea of human equality—the equal right of all men to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In his plan of reconstruction he would insist upon the great idea of human equality. We had just passed out of a rebellion gotten up for the purpose of perpetuating slavery and the power of a privileged class. It was not undertaken to redress any great wrong or vindicate any great right. And such a rebellion—one which has planted agony at a million hearthstones, ridged our soils with half a million rudely formed graves and piled up an enormous national debt. It was such a rebellion we had scattered like fine dust before the strong wind. There was no surrender except such as the thief makes when taken by the officer. There were those who say that the rebellion makes no change in the political relation of the rebellious States to the Union, and that they have all the rights of the States that did not oppose the Government. This was the view of President Johnson. Mr. Johnson and his friends were slightly metaphysical and a little theological when they say the States are not out of the Union. They probably borrowed the idea from the doctrine of the perseverance of the Saints,—once in grace, always in grace, but whether they were in or out, it was certain the Union was not in President Johnson. To be in the Union was to be under the law of the United States. The governments of the rebel States were destroyed by the rebellion. They were under another Government and flag. If they come back, we should insist upon terms. Mr. Johnson thought so once. He did not regard it as he would a dog fight. When men fight about a question, it stood in reason that the victor had the right to dictate the terms of peace, and in our case it would be madness to do otherwise. We ought to demand indemnity for the past and security for the future. The Republican party would see to it that Congress is indorsed and Andrew Johnson rebuked. [Applause.] That party would carry the elections this fall like a whirlwind and save the Nation. He was present not merely as a Radical, but as a Reformer, and he would say that any reconstruction policy that does not recognize and protect the black man would prove a failure. He wanted the immediate and positive incorporation of the black race into the great body politic. Society, to be safe, must feel an interest in the rights of the humblest as well as the greatest in the land. He was for negro suffrage and for his right to be voted for. Why? He was a man, and no man was more. He was a capable subject of government, and the negro needed the ballot for his own protection from violence. What protected the emigrant landing on our shores, if it is not the prospective ballot? The foreigner was the object of the attention of all the political parties. One party opposed another, but all felt they wanted the foreigners' votes, and in order to get them protects the emigrant, and vindicates him on all occasions.

One of the things settled by the war, was that the negro is to be a permanent part of the country, because he would be useful, and because he cannot be removed except at an expense which the people are unwilling to incur. In war and peace the negro would be useful to the United States. It was said the negro would die out, but the prospect was very discouraging to the well-wishers of this idea, for there was a considerable deal of vitality about the black man, and withal the exterminating forces of slavery, the negro still lived, and it could not be supposed that liberty, which was the birthright of mankind, could exterminate him. There was no similarity between the Indian and negro. The latter was in all the elements of civilization, more like Anglo Saxon, which the Indian was not.

But what was to be done with the negro? Why, he ought to be enfranchised. He wanted it for his education. If the American people would see the black man rise, give him the ballot. If it is said he is not capable, it ought to be remembered that no class will more readily adapt themselves to laws and institutions sooner, or better than the negro. If it was designed to keep him in darkness, it would then do to trample him under the feet of men, but if he was to be raised, he should have the ballot and all the other means of being great. He had earned the right of the ballot by his valor and blood. If after calling on the black man, in its extremity, this nation forgets to reward him with the franchise, it would be a burning disgrace. The negro was nearly the only friend the Union had in the South during the war, and risked his life to serve the flag. So notorious was this fact that the Union prisoners hated to see the face of a white man in the South, but always glad to see the face of a negro.

The ballot had better be given to the black man, because the nation might want the negro again. He went up and down the land telling the black to enlist. He told his race that though often deceived, he believed the Government would now do justice to the blacks. The extremity of the nation was the negro's opportunity. But he was disappointed, for he was confident the American people would be generous to a race that rushed to their rescue when the flag was wavering before the foe.

But he did not despair, he believed time would bring the black man his rights—all of them, and some of them very soon. [Applause]. In a foreign war, what part would the rebels take? Every man knows they would take advantage of the Federal extremity to gain their independence. The South had learned the value of the negro. Davis and Lee wanted the negro armed, and only the Gulf States held back. The North might want the negro again, and to be sure to have his aid justice should now be done to him.

It was a stigma to give the ballot to every tongue on earth except the negro. Our government, too, depended upon the friendship of the people. What had we as a counterpoise to the settled hate of the South? Nothing but the friendship of the negro. Give him the ballot and we would have a Union party at the South. The negro should have everything to protect himself, but deprive him of all these and we would be taking back an old viper into our bosom. The national honor demanded that the elective franchise should be conferred on the black. The Nation asked him to espouse its cause and he did it, and could the Republic, in the full view of its experience, remember its enemies and forget its friends—exalt one and cast down the other? Yet no political party dares say immediately enfranchise the black. The "Boys in Blue" had met in Pittsburgh and refused to say that the blacks, who fought on their side, should be enfranchised. It was a shameful omission. But the negro would not be wholly ignored. The world would hear of it—God would hear of it, and this Republic would hear of it. There was a time when the negro was somebody in this country. But, alas, peace to the white man brought war to the negro. Peace to New York brought murder to New Orleans and Memphis. This Government could have no peace until it rested its foundations in justice. He scouted the idea that the negro did not know enough to vote. If he knew as much when sober as some men when drunk, he knew enough to vote, and if he knew enough to be loyal, he knew enough to vote. The war against the negro voting was begun by John C. Calhoun, with the war against the Union, and when the war against the Union should cease, the war against negro suffrage would cease also. The negro was now enfranchised in some of the States, and he had thus far used it very wisely. The negro would vote where his rights and interests are best taken care of. The negro only wanted fair play and no favor. Mr. Johnson says that if the negro is enfranchised there would be a war of extermination, just as though political parties were going to kill off a class that has a trinity of rights—the defense of American liberty—the ballot box, the jury box and the cartridge box. Mr. Douglass then recapitulated a little, and after thanking the audience for their attention it had given him, he resumed his seat amidst applause.

The audience was then dismissed.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CORN CROP.—It is estimated that the corn crop of Pennsylvania for the present year will amount to about 30,000,000 bushels, being an average yield of 33 bushels for each acre planted. Last year the corn crop of this State amounted to 35,477,106 bushels, and 886,928 acres were planted in corn, being an average of about 40 bushels to the acre. Last year's crop was valued at $28,848,168. Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Iowa, Kentucky and Missouri, in the order named, last year, raised more corn than Pennsylvania, the corn crop of Illinois exceeding 177,000,000 bushels. Pennsylvania raised about one-twentieth of the entire crop of the Union, whilst Illinois raised one-fourth.

BURNSIDE AND LOGAN.—The New York correspondent of the Hartford Press writes as follows:

General Burnside, by warmly espousing the Republican cause, has secured for himself a brilliant political future. The following ticket is now talked of for 1870. For President, General Ambrose E. Burnside, of Rhode Island; for Vice President, General John A. Logan, of Illinois.

THE INDEPENDENT ON THE ISSUE.

NEW YORK, September 28.—The Evening Post says editorially: "The Independent takes occasion to lecture the National Republican Convention for promising admission and representation to the Southern States on condition that the Amendment is adopted. It remarks that Congress has not pledged itself to any such bargain, and thus shows that the Amendment is not what the Tribune lately declared, a Congressional plan of reconstruction. But the Independent goes further into declaring that Congress will not admit the Southern States to representation, even if they adopt the amendment. Like Mr. Stevens, it threatens to impose other conditions. We believe, however, that both the Independent and Mr. Stevens will be disappointed if the Southern States should wisely adopt the Amendment. If this is done, we have no doubt whatever that the county will imperatively demand of Congress the immediate admission of Southern representatives, and we do not think Congress will refuse that demand."

LETTER FROM HON. THADDEUS STEVENS.

The following correspondence appears in the Philadelphia papers to-day:

LANCASTER, September 18.

To Hon. Thaddeus Stevens,

DEAR SIR:—As the question has frequently been asked of me what effect the success of the President's policy of reconstruction would have upon our National securities, I would like to hear your views upon the subject, if it would not be trespassing too much upon your time.

Yours, very respectfully,

[Signed] JOHN GIGER.

September 27.

To John Giger, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: In answer to your inquiry, what effect the success of the President's views will have on the national securities, I am of opinion that its effect would be very injurious. The President contends that the body of men acting as a Congress has no Constitutional power, and can do no valid acts in the absence of the excluded States. The Congress that authorized the war debt and laid the internal duties to pay it, was composed of precisely the same number of representatives from the same States as the present. If it should be denied that those Congresses had no Constitutional existence, then the five-twenties, ten-forties, seven-thirties, and the legal tender greenbacks will have been issued without authority, and will be worthless. Whether they would ever be redeemed, would depend on what the President would consider a Constitutional Congress, after the admission of the rebel representatives, when the condition of the debts of both belligerents would be considered.

Yours, truly,

[Signed] THADDEUS STEVENS.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.

ST. LOUIS, September 28.—George H. Hall was nominated for Congress by the Conservatives of the Seventh District yesterday.

Battle Between the Mexican Liberals and Imperialists—A Town Captured and Retaken.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., September 28.—A letter dated September 21st, giving an account of Corona's recent operations at Palos Rietas, near Mazatlan, says seven hundred men, under the command of Colonels Grenada and Martinez, entered the French position from the rear, capturing one piece of artillery and the Imperial magazine. The French, thus cut off from Mazatlan, made two desperate charges under Captain Delatak, who succeeded in recapturing the cannon. An Imperial battallion called Casadors, shortly arrived and drove off the Liberal force. Both sides exhibited the utmost bravery, and especial praise is awarded to Capt. Delatak for his obstinate defense. An American named Alonzo Ridley received a commission as captain in the Imperial Guard while upon the field of battle.

The revolution in Lower California has terminated peacefully, all parties uniting in favor of Governor Pedrin, who starts from here by the next steamer.

The United States steamer Suwanee will soon sail for Mazatlan to look after American interests.

The steamer Continental brought $36,000 in treasure from Mazatlan.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The steamer Delmarte, from Crescent City, brings six thousand dollars in treasure.

Letters to the Imperial Consul of Mexico state that in the State of Guerrero things remained unchanged. Several small engagements without decisive results had occurred in Michoacan. In Cahina all was quiet. Jalasco is also quiet, and the reported capture of Guadalajara is pronounced false. Carena's success near Mazatlana is attributed to the treachery of an ex-Liberal officer, who commanded the outposts of Palas Prietas. When it became known that the Imperials would evacuate Guaymas, a hundred Liberal families fled rather than remain under Liberal rule.

WASHINGTON, September 28.—Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, received to-day the following official dispatches from the Mexican Consul at San Francisco, dated the 27th. The whole State of Sonora is in possession of our troops, including the port of Guaymas, which was evacuated by the French. This news is positive. Gen. Corona expects to be soon in possession of Mazatlan. These dispatches are signed by Jos. E. A. Godri. Senor Romero does not credit the Imperial rumor of the death of Gen. Diaz, near Oaxaca. Gen. Diaz, one of the best Mexican officers, is, in the estimation of Senor Romero, too good a soldier to allow himself to be surprised by the enemy. Senor Romero does not attach must credit to the reported shooting of M. Montnolon's son, an officer in the French army in Mexico. The details of the news render it hardly possible that it is true.

Palestine to be Wrested from the Control of the Sultan.

NEW YORK, September 28.—A correspondent writing from Basle, gives some particulars of the formation of a powerful society for the occupation of Palestine, and wresting it from the control of the Turkish Sultan. The society is being rapidly formed with the strongest influences, financial and political, at its back. The Rothschilds, Sir Moses Montefiore, and other great capitalists among the Jews are actively in sympathy with the undertaking. The plan has the favor of more than one crowned head in Europe, among them the Emperor Napoleon, of whose especial theory of nationalities, it is a welcome development. Several prominent noblemen of England and the leading names of the Fauborg St. Germain are also among its friends. As soon as the organization is completed, the society will obtain concessions from Turkey, and proceed to establish the Bureau and build the roads.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, September 28.—General M. K. Lawler, late of the Union army, has been arrested and sent to Baton Rouge in charge of some negroes, on a charge of assault and battery, and bound over to the Second District Court.

The Jackson North Louisianian says the skeleton found on the edge of Winn and Jackson was not that of Lieutenant Butts, of the Freedmen's Bureau. It is thought he is not dead. The police jury are making efforts to trace him up.

B. H. Epperson, Union conservative, is likely to be run in the Second District of Texas for Congress without opposition. General A. B. Norton, Union conservative, was also nominated in the First District.

Two Colored Soldiers Murdered in Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, September 28.—Major Lowell, commander of the Federal forces at Jefferson, Texas, reports the killing of two soldiers of the 65th Colored Infantry by one Jack Phillips, Deputy Marshal at Jefferson. The murdered men were victims of blind, revengeful passion. Phillips is at large, but a warrant for his arrest has been issued by the civil authorities.

Accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad

PHILADELPHIA, September 28.—An accident occurred at Spread Eagle Station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, fifteen miles from this city, at noon to-day. The flange of the trucks of the locomotive of the fast train, going east, broke. The engine was thrown from the track, and the front part of the train was smashed to pieces. None of the passengers were injured. The other trains were somewhat delayed, but the road is now clear.

Trial of Pollard.

BALTIMORE, September 28.—H. Rives Pollard had a preliminary examination to-day, on the charge of shooting Fred. Hopkins, on Wednesday night, and was released on giving bail in five thousand dollars. Hopkins's wound is serious, but not dangerous.

RUSSIA.

Speech of Prince Gortschakoff.

NEW YORK, September 28.—The following are the principal passages in the speech of Prince Gortschakoff, at the great banquet to the American delegation at St. Petersburg on the 8th:

"The resolution of Congress contained an error, an original one, which can only be explained by distance when it makes mention of an enemy to emancipation in Russia. The insane person to whom it refers belongs to no nationality. He had no personal share in the destinies of the country; he represents nothing but the blind hazard of his birth. In Russia there exists not a single enemy to emancipation. All classes owe to that act their liberty. [Applause.] Even the same classes on which it imposes heavy sacrifices, the sovereign was the first to bear testimony of this to the Territorial nobility. He would not dwell on the manifestations of sympathy between the two countries. It was clear as midday, as seen in one of the most interesting facts of our time, a fact which creates between two peoples, two continents, the germs of a kind feeling, a natural friendship, which will bear its fruit in forming traditions and tending to consolidate relations based on the spirit of genuine Christian civilization—not based on geographical proximity; the sea lies between them, and not on parchments, as few are to be found in the archives of the ministry. He rejoiced in these relations. He had faith in their continuance, and in his political position all his care shall be given to consolidate them; care, not effort, because an effort is not necessary to any affair of spontaneous and reciprocal attraction. Another motive impelled him to proclaim loudly his appreciation of his entente. It is neither a menace nor peril for any one. It is not inspired by greed or arrière pensee. The Almighty has given the two great countries their existence, and that interior life suffices. The United States are invulnerable at home, an invulnerability not due to the rampart of the oceans screening them from European conflicts, but founded upon the public spirit and personal character of the citizens. No evil can happen to America but what she may inflict upon herself. We have draped our flags in mourning for one of the most sad pages in the history of later times. We saw with profound regret the struggle between the North and South, but have always had faith in the final triumph of the Union, and we shall hope its permanent consolidation, which is the aim and directs the efforts of President Johnson, whose system is inspired at once by firmness and moderation. He has all our sympathies, and will draw the ties more closely between the two countries."

HIGHLY INTERESTING.

NEW YORK, September 28.

FIRE.

A block of wooden buildings in Flushing street, owned by Wm. and Gilbert Wright was destroyed by fire, yesterday. The explosion of a kerosene lamp was the cause of the conflagration. None of the property in the buildings, which were occupied as stores and dwellings, was saved. Loss $20,000, partially insured.

FORGER ARRESTED.

Frederick Kerna, alleged to have been lately an inmate of Lewistown, Pa., prison, was arrested on a charge of forging a note of Jonathan T. Farnan, of Freehold, New Jersey.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

In the Protestant Episcopal Convention today, an offer was received from a source not stated, of $50,000, to establish two new dioceses at Albany and Brooklyn. The Convention adjourned this afternoon sine die.

Terrible Gale—Fearful Loss of Life.

PORT AU BASQUE, September 28.—There was a fearful gale of wind on Saturday last, on the Eastern coast of Newfoundland, and a great many wrecks have been reported. A French frigate was lost at St. Pierre, and several coasters were wrecked. Over one hundred and fifty dead bodies were picked up at St. Pierre on Sunday, which were lost from the different vessels. No further particulars have come to hand.

Another Horrible Murder.

NEW YORK, September 28.—Some days since a man was arrested in Jersey City on suspicion of foul play, he having been the last person seen with a boatman named Conroy, whom he had hired to row to the Central Railroad Ferry. He denied everything. This afternoon at four o'clock the body of Conroy was discovered in the harbor near the place mentioned, with his throat cut from ear to ear.

FROM STEUBENVILLE.

A Johnson-Democratic Meeting—It is Overshadowed by the People's Demonstration.

STEUBENVILLE, September 25, 1866.

Johnson Democracy is below par in this vicinity, judging by the demonstration on last Saturday. "My policy" will eventually be as scarce as cholera patients are now in Steubenville. The mass meeting which assembled in what is locally known as Free Orchard, in the suburbs of the city, did not much exceed four hundred souls, counting men, women and children. Indeed, the most exciting feature in the day's programme was a real canine fight, which took place in the midst of the crowd, attracting the attention from the speaker. Quiet lookers on pronounced the whole thing a grand fizzle, while some prominent members of the club frankly acknowledged that the gathering was not as enthusiastic as it might have been.

Last evening though the curtain rose and revealed a far different scene. The buildings in our principal streets where the torchlight procession was expected to pass, were handsomely and tastefully illuminated. Among them the St. Charles Hotel deserves special notice, and at the Steubenville Female Seminary Chinese lanterns and our national colors were flung out to the breeze. There was no lack of enthusiasm either when the boys came marching along, and those unused to singing, heartily responded to the general chorus, "Three cheers for the red, white and blue."

Later in the evening an unusual concourse of people assembled around the speaker's stand, which had hastily been erected in front of the court house. Several celebrities were advertised to address the meeting, but the Hon. John A. Bingham, Ohio's pet and favorite, pointed out the soldier's duty in the coming conflict. It was one of those stirring, patriotic addresses which appeals to the heart and sense, and makes one feel ready to fight all the battles over again, if need be, for the sake of the old flag.

SOLDIER.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

SCARCITY OF CURRENCY.

Great complaint is being made of the scarcity of currency, including the greenback issue from ones up to twenties, and the postal notes of all denominations. The Treasury here has had orders on hand for several weeks for supplies of the fractional currency, but it has been unable to fill them, and still continues so. In all the Northern cities the banks are complaining of a greater scarcity of small notes of all kinds than they have experienced for months.

THE RUMORED COLLISION IN TEXAS.

Official dispatches from Texas deny the rumor current here of a sanguinary collision in that State between the citizens and military. The rumors are supposed to have grown out of the Brenham affair, which was magnified into an importance the facts in connection with which could not be made to warrant.

MORE REMOVALS IN THE KEYSTONE.

Some dozen or more removals from minor offices in the interior of the Keystone were made to-day.

SECRETARY SEWARD

Is out again to-day, but very feeble.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY CHANDLER,

Of the Treasury Department, it is now said, will not go out. Both he and Mr. McCulloch understand each other perfectly, and it is doubtful whether the latter would accept the resignation of his First Assistant, even if tendered.

CESSATION OF INTEREST.

In accordance with due notice from the Treasury Department, interest ceased upon 50 per cent. of each Clearing-house certificate to-day. Interest upon the remaining 50 per cent. will continue until one month from to-day, when the whole will cease.

EXCHANGE OF GREENBACKS.

In relation to the scarcity of small notes, alluded to above, a proposition has been made to the Secretary of the Treasury to retire a good portion of the "$50" and "$100" notes, and substitute in place of them notes of the denomination of 1s, 2s, 5s, 10s and 20s. The subject is held under abeyance, with doubts of a favorable issue.

OFFICE HOLDERS TAKE NOTICE.

Secretary McCulloch has recently avowed his decided disapproval of officers in his department taking an active part in political contests, and his desire that their principal attention should be devoted to the public business.

BOUNTY CLAIMS.

The regulations of the War Department, requiring claims for additional bounty to be made by the claimant direct or through the authorized agents of the several States, has been referred to the Attorney General for his opinion upon its constitutionality. It is contended by the officers of the Government that these bounties are gratuitous, not indebtedness, and hence the right of the Government to say in what manner it shall be distributed.

A writ has been issued in the United States District Court at Norfolk, for an injunction against the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. The injunction was issued in favor of the Adams Express Company, upon the grounds of alleged violation of contract by the P. R. Company. The National Express Company, some months ago, were granted the privilege of transporting their freight over the road upon better terms than those made by special agreement with the Adams Express Company, and hence the application for an injunction.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM GENERAL GRANT.

He Denies that Anybody has a Right to Commit Him to "My Policy."

[From the New Albany (Ind.) Daily Commercial, September 24th.

Mr. Kerr, in his speech at Hardinsburg, startled his hearers by the assertion that General Grant was a firm supporter of President Johnson and "his policy." The sensation created by this extraordinary statement was considerably marred upon the proof being called for and produced in the form of a letter to Mr. Kerr from Brevet Brigadier General W. S. Hillyer, of New York city. General Gresham, not feeling completely satisfied with the proof adduced, wrote to General Grant concerning it, with the following result. It has been announced on several occasions that the citizens of New Albany would be favored with a speech from General Hillyer at some time before the ensuing election. Will General Hillyer come after this severe rebuke?

The correspondence referred to we give below:

HEADQ'RS ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15, 1866.

General W. Q. Gresham:

GENERAL: General Grant directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of September 10th and to forward you the accompanying copy of a letter sent by him this day to General Hillyer. You are at liberty to make what use you please of the enclosed.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
ADAM BADEAU,
Colonel and A. D. C.

HEADQ'RS ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19, 1866.

I see from the papers that you have been making a speech in which you pledged me to a political party. I am further in receipt of a letter from General Gresham, of Indiana, in which he says that his opponent for Congaess had published an extract from a letter received from you, in which you pledged me to the support of President Johnson, and as opposed to the election of any candidate who does not support his policy. You, nor no man living, is authorized to speak for me in political matters, and I ask you to desist in future. I want every man to vote according to his own judgment, without influence from me.

Yours, etc., U. S. GRANT.

The New York Herald and the People of the South—Their Last Chance.

The New York Herald continues its articles of advice to the Southern people and the President. In the issue of Thursday it reiterates that the plain policy of the South is to accept, without hesitancy or delay, the proposed amendment; for they certainly cannot expect to do any better with the present Congress, and they must not hope or expect greater clemency from the next, for by all the signs of the times, the Fortieth Congress will be composed in part of a fierce and revolutionary body of men. In all the Eastern States, where the Radicals have majorities, says the Herald, the question upon nominations for Congress is not who is the most radical. The latter is invariably the nominee. It is for this reason that such men as Banks' Butler and Boutwell—all formerly Massachusetts Democrats—are so extreme and violent in their anti-Southern views. In this they but echo the sentiments of the people they represent, and not to obey that sentiment they know is to allow themselves to be politically shelved for the remainder of their lives. They are bent upon success, and the motto of one of these men is, "Success is a duty."

"Now, then, is the critical moment for the South. The proposed Constitutional Amendment should be promptly accepted by them. The present Congress cannot refuse to acknowledge the act and restore them to fraternal relationship in the Union. It is in a measure pledged to do this, and it has already partially fulfilled its pledge by admitting Tennessee. From the next Congress the South will have much to apprehend. Once in Congress, they will hold the balance of power in the House and have their proportionate weight in the Senate. They will never have a better chance of being restored to a position in the Union than is now offered them. We again say, let them accept it.

"President Johnson should issue a proclamation calling upon the Governors of the several Southern States to convene their Legislatures before next December, and recommend them to adopt the proposed amendment."

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

George W. Snow, for many years commercial editor of the New York Tribune, died suddenly on Thursday of heart disease, at his residence in that city, in the fifty-fifth year of his age.

Yesterday's New York Tribune's Pittsfield special says: At the session of the Board for Foreign Mission yesterday, resolutions on the state of the country were adopted, urging the education of the freedmen. The course of Bishop Staley, at Honolulu, was severely censured in a special Committee's report.

There were five new cases of cholera reported Thursday. Burial permits for six cholera dead were issued during the same time. Doctor Dalton reported that during the week ending Wednesday evening there had been fifty-nine cases of cholera in the city, of which twenty-nine proved fatal.

In the base ball match between the Atlantics of Brooklyn and the Eurekas of New York, Thursday, the former were victorious by 30 to 20. In the cricket match, Thursday, between the St. George's and Young America, in the second inning the Young Americas were forced to retire by splendid bowling and fielding for 30, leaving the St. George Eleven but 29 to get to win, and this number they secured with the loss of four wickets only.

A Herald Ottawa special says: The rumor of concentration by the Fenians on the border, for another raid into Canada, is premature, and is believed to be so in Canada. A flaw has been discovered in the indictments against the Fenians captured at Fort Erie which will probably necessitate their discharge.

A valuable statistical table, exhibiting the rate of increase in the population of the different States in the Union since the census of 1865, has been received by the Department from seven States, and the increase of population, even during the war, in which the mortality was unusually large, is as follows: Minnesota, forty per cent.; Illinois, twenty-six per cent.; Wisconsin, twelve per cent.; Iowa, twelve per cent.; Michigan, seven and five-tenths per cent.; Rhode Island, four per cent.; Massachusetts, three per cent. Taking thirteen and a half per cent. as a fair representation of the rate of increase in the other States, the Census Bureau estimates that the population of the United States and Territories has increased from 31,433,-243, the number found by the census of 1860, to 35,500,000.

The Bewilderment at Washington.

A Washington dispatch says: Even McCulloch and Randall, lately the most eager to turn men out of office for opinion sake and the most noisy indorsers of Andrew Johnson's policy, begin to recoil before the fruits of their own proscription. On Friday last, when a committee of the departmental or bread-and-butter club in that city called upon the Postmaster General to recommend one of their number for an appointment, he told them there were no vacancies, to which, with characteristic impudence, their chief responded by saying there were many persons in office who were opposed to the President's "policy," and that these ought to be removed. Randall replied, with considerable indignation, that he would not remove men, save for official malfeasance, and the club was beaten. The National Intelligencer, attacks McCulloch because he will not accept the resignation of Assistant Secretary Chandler. It is not necessary to characterize Mr. Seward's position. His sickness is in a great part the result of utter disgust at the complete failure of all his plans, and the mutterings of Raymond against the Democrats in New York for not nominating one of his school for Governor, together with his abandonment of all his chief positions, are so many indications of the way the Secretary of State is leaning. Thurlow Weed is now in Washington, and keen and experienced as he is will doubtless give to his friend and associate a frank exposure of the manner in which Andrew Johnson's new policy has dislocated and destroyed the new party. With Grant openly for Geary and against Clymer, and with the fact too patent to deny that all Johnson's new friends and many of his new appointments are men who covered him with slander, the work of proscription will be found a very dull and degrading pastime.

A COLORED AUTHOR.—We have among us a colored youth who has, without the assistance of a teacher (save to learn him how to read and write,) written and had published at some expense, a neat little pamphlet of forty-eight pages, entitled "Essays on Miscellaneous Subjects," which he is now endeavoring to sell at a small price, in order to raise money enough to assist him to go to school awhile, and systematize what he has studied alone. The young man is represented to be true and reliable. His pamphlet is worthy of notice, and as his object is very laudable, we wish him success in his efforts.

THE ICE WITCH, or The Knight of the Frozen Hand.

NATURALIZING.—Clerks Sproul and McCandless, of the United States Courts, and the clerks of the County Courts, have been busily engaged within the last few days in making out the necessary papers for applicants for naturalization. Besides the large numbers of foreigners being naturalized, there are a great many of the discharged soldiers receiving their papers, who served two years in the army, and under the act of Congress are therefore entitled to their final papers without having first declared their intentions. Applications can be made up to the day of election. The number naturalized promises to exceed that of any previous year.

Mr. Bunting had also with him, two apples of the "Bellflower and Nonpariel" varieties almost as large as the one above described, grown on the same farm. The trees were all well filled with fruit varying but little in size from the ones exhibited us.

SALT FOR FATTENING SWINE.—The Annalen des Landwirthschaft gives details of the experiments of a farmer in France, in testing the use of salt in fattening swine. He selected two pairs of barrow hogs, weighing two hundred pounds apiece; one pair received, with their daily allowance of food, two ounces of salt; the other pair, similarly fed, none. In the course of a week it was easily seen that the salted pair had a much stronger appetite than the others, and after a fortnight it was increased to two ounces apiece. After four months the weight of the salted hogs was three hundred and fifty pounds each, while that of the unsalted, five weeks later, only reached three hundred pounds. The experiment was repeated with almost the same results. The author feeds young pigs, according to their age, a quarter of an ounce per day, breeding sows very little during pregnancy, and during the heat of summer withholds it in a large degree from all, as it induces thirst and liability to disease.

PIANOFORTES.
CARD.
It is with feelings of pride as American manufacturers that we publish the following testimonials, which have been received recently.

EUROPEAN TESTIMONIALS.
Received During the Month of August, 1866.

"LONDON, July 25th, 1866.
"MESSRS. CHICKERING & SONS—Gents: I have much pleasure in enclosing a document signed by the first composers, musicians, and professors in Europe I held your Pianos in such high estimation (vide my certificate) that I felt it my duty to take one of them with me to Europe to ascertain the opinion of my professional brethren. The enclosed certificate will prove how unanimous they have been on the subject. I beg to forward at the same time a letter I received from my friend Mr. Collard, which I am sure must be gratifying to you.
"I have the honor to be, gentlemen, yours very truly.
"JAMES M. WEHLI."

LONDON, January 14, 1866.
"JAMES M. WEHLI, Esq.—My dear Sir: I have great pleasure in asking you to convey to Messrs. Chickering the expression of my highest approval of their instrument. It is, I consider, not merely the best instrument of American manufacture that I have tried, but one of the finest Grand Pianofortes that has ever came under my observation; and the Messrs. Chickering may well be proud of having turned out from their manufactory an instrument which for touch, quality, power and workmanship, it would be very difficult to surpass in any part of the wide world.
"Dear sir, very sincerely yours,
"CHAS. D. COLLARD,
"(Firm of Collard & Collard, Pianoforte Manufacturers, London.")

"LONDON, July 20, 1866.
"MESSRS. CHICKERING & SONS—Gents: I have just been invited by Messrs. Collard to try a grand Pianoforte manufactured by you, and I have no hesitation in indorsing the opinion of my old friend Mr. C. D. Collard, viz: that it is the finest instrument I ever played on.
"Believe me, gentlemen, most faithfully yours,
"J. L. HATTON."

Testimonial from the Most Distinguished Artists in Europe to Messrs. Chickering & Sons.
LONDON, July 25, 1866.
"Having played upon a Pianoforte made by Messrs Chickering & Sons, of Boston and New York, I have much pleasure in testifying to its general excellence.
"For sweetness and brilliancy of tone, delicacy of touch, and magnificent power for concert purposes, I consider it a really GRAND PIANOFORTE, AND DECIDEDLY THE BEST I HAVE SEEN OF AMERICAN MANUFACTURE.

"I recently had occasion to play on one of Chickering's Concert Grand Pianos. The high reputation of these instruments had already reached me: and the instrument under notice fully sustained the reputation of the celebrated makers. It is distinguished by the fullness, beauty and nobleness of its tone; by the perfect exactness of the entire scale, and by its action, which is of so remarkable a kind that it gives to the player the most complete mastery of every shade of tone: p p, to medium and f f. In short, this Piano unites all the advantages of the best productions of the kind, and stands side by side with the most celebrated European instruments.
LOUIS PLAIDY.

Certificate from Herr Carl Reinecke, Successor to the positions of Mendelssohn, both in the Conservatoire, and as Conductor of the Celebrated "Gewandhaus Concerts," in Leipsic.
"I hereby assert and affirm that the Grand Pianoforte of Chickering & Sons, of Boston and New York, which I have tried and examined, is one of the finest instruments of the class that has ever came to my notice.
CARL REINECKE.
Leipsic, July, 1866.

Certificate From Y. Von Arnold, the Celebrated Russian Pianist and Composer.
"At Mr. Levitt's in Leipsic, I have this day (July 24th, 1866) examined a Grand Pianoforte from the manufactory of Messrs. Chickering & Sons, of Boston It is a Concert Instrument of 7⅓ octaves, with regard to which I would make the following remarks:—
"First—The action is so finely balanced that any gradation of power can be obtained from the most delicate lightness to the greatest force.
"Second—Between the two extremes of the keyboard the vibrations are perfectly equal in graduated power. The 'singing' quality of the instrument (prolongation of sound,) especially in the middle octaves, is greatly developed, and is exceedingly beautiful. The bass is full, uniform, powerful. without harshness, and the ensemble very beautiful.
"Third—Nothing finer than this instrument could be desired with regard to power and fullness of tone. In conclusion, it must be acknowledged that this instrument is one of the most perfect Pianofortes of our time, namely, as regards tone in general, and in the perfection of its mechanical parts.

THE PRESIDENT—THE AMENDMENT—AND THE SOUTH.

Some degree of moderation appears to have marked the behavior of Mr. JOHNSON since he returned to Washington, whether in consequence of the temporary withdrawal of Mr. SEWARD or the result of the President's observations on his recent tour, no one seems quite clear. The latter is the most probable cause. Indeed, it is no secret that the President has seriously entertained and brought before his Cabinet the contingency of accepting the Constitutional Amendment, and of recommending its adoption by the South, for the reasons stated by our Washington correspondent a few days ago. The President is an extremely stubborn man, and adheres to his convictions—if they may be so called—long after the judgment of others has been convinced. In this case he will not shift his ground immediately, though there is good reason for believing he will do so when the elections have gone against him. He is not the man that experiences any serious difficulty in shifting, when the end to be reached has been agreed upon; and, as in this case Mr. SEWARD will give him the benefit of advice in favor of the amendment, it is not improbable that he will take open ground for it before the meeting of Congress.

Moderation is the necessary consequence of this state of feeling at Washington. It necessarily precedes the predicted shifting of ground, and is a direct acknowledgement of the force of public opinion. Mr. JOHNSON probably realizes less than do Mr. SEWARD and other immediate supporters the actual state of popular sentiment. He has many reasons for wishing to fight it out if there is the slightest ground of hope, and he will be apt to cling to the belief that there yet remains ground of hope, long after they have been convinced that none exists.

It is among the reports from Washington that the President has taken means to ascertain from the Southern leaders with what degree of favor the modification of his policy and the recommendation that the Amendment should be adopted will be received. It is scarcely probable that they will entertain the proposition before they are made to believe that it is the only course open to them. Of this the October and November elections will be potent in convincing them. And the Southern mind will be very apt to be stimulated to an early and favorable contemplation of the subject, by the fact that moderate men like Senator SHERMAN will be inclined to put to the South terms by no means as favorable if the Amendment is rejected.

That within the next six months the South will be humbly willing to accept the Amendment, is not an extreme prediction. The ensuing election will be a defeat in the civil contest, not less overwhelmingly against the South, than were the battles which led to the surrender of the rebel armies and the total collapse of the rebellion. A state of similar willingness to accept terms would be but the natural consequence.

THE FIRST JAR.

The Government machinery, throughout the war, worked admirably and effectively. The strain on it was terrible, but the Government stood it safely, and grew stronger and stronger while the strain continued. A time of mighty, organized, and persistent opposition, in which all the resources of eleven States were employed, and all their available men were in arms against the Government, might be expected to severely try its powers and to betray any weakness that might lurk in its constitution or its administration. But it stood and survived the trial, and came out of the ordeal in full strength.

The reason is obvious. In the first place, the different departments of the Government worked together harmoniously. In the second place, the great body of the Union people were so earnest and unanimous that the treacherous sympathisers with the rebellion were carried into reticence and inaction by the majesty of a loyal public sentiment. So it was that the Government, harmonious within itself and in harmony with the people, was able to withstand the external shock, and without internal jar or disturbance, to maintain its regular administration of public affairs, by the legislative, judicial and executive departments.

The first jar in the admirable working of the Government machinery arose from the new positions taken by the Executive with relation to the legislative department. We give Mr. JOHNSON now, as we did then, the credit of not having probably intended at that time to encroach on the prerogatives of the legislative branch of the Government. He suggested and adopted certain measures, with an avowal of their experimental character and of a willingness to abandon them for better ones, should they be found defective or unsatisfactory to the mind of the nation. But since that time, for whatever cause, that deference for the mind of the nation has been completely superceded by an obstinate self-reliance and a contemptuous disregard for the wishes of the people as expressed by their representatives in Congress. He has taken, in a conspicuous way before the people and the world, the attitude of an antagonist to both Houses of Congress, and has, in no ambiguous terms, intimated a disposition to forbid and suppress their proceedings, or, in other words, to usurp the legislative department, and connect it with the executive under his administration.

This is the first jar and it is a tremendous one, involving the danger of crushing the whole Democratic system of government and of raising a despotic one on its ruins. We hold Mr. JOHNSON responsible for it. If he has been provoked by the speech of individual members of Congress, that is no reason for his disgraceful passion against the body, or for entertaining the thought of stopping the wheels of Republican government by suppressing its legislative branch. Mr. LINCOLN was called traitor, despot, and murderer on the floor of Congress. How differently he bore the indignity! He forgot ABRAHAM LINCOLN in the conscious responsibility of his high official position, and went forward with his great and glorious work, instead of stopping or stooping to bandy opprobrious names with his revilers.

It is for the people who love the Union and who prefer a Republican to a one man Government, to set the machinery back into working order at the coming election. If they want to have a National Legislature to represent them and not merely to obey the wishes of the Executive, they will vote for the Republican Congressional candidates, and to secure their rights in the United States Senate, they will vote for such men for the State Legislature as will be sure not to elect the present incumbrance to that high position.

WOMEN IN THE WHITE HOUSE.—The Herald correspondent says that as many as fifty women were in waiting at one time to obtain an audience with the President, on matters relating to claims. The correspondent remarks that "the courtesy due to womankind forbids that when once they are admitted they should be treated precisely as are the sterner sex, hence their interviews are usually protracted, greatly to be inconvenience and annoyance of others who may be in waiting."

The considerate correspondent further observes that did the ladies know how "these female lobbyists are held" in Washington, their number would not be increased, but the writer omits to impart the information.

FIRMNESS OF PURPOSE.

MR. JOHNSON has often asserted that nothing can turn him from his purpose. Resolution is undoubtedly a good thing to have, if a person is careful in forming his purposes. Colonel CROCKET's celebrated maxim: "Be sure you're right, and then go ahead," was a capital one for politics, morals and religion. We cannot see any special virtue in sticking to a bad resolution, merely because one has been so unfortunate or so wicked as to have formed it. And as Mr. JOHNSON occupies an official position closely connected with the fame, peace and prosperity of the American people, we cannot but feel some deep interest to know what his purposes are, whether they are those which he avowed before he became President of the United States, or those which he has formed and broached to the public ear since—whether to punish traitors and make treason odious, or to denounce in language and proscribe in his official patronage the true men of the country.

A very resolute man—one who has firmness enough to brag of—should not only be careful in forming his purposes, but should also have some power of discrimination in carrying them out. Else, he may expose himself to the mortification of setting his purposes to butting each other, like angry rams, to the more serious inconvenience of being confronted by the indignant and resolute opposition of the true men whom he stigmatizes as traitors and disunionists. Mr. JOHNSON has had enough of both these experiences, one would think, both to suspend his confidence in his firmness of purpose, and what would be still more creditable to him and advantageous to the country, to suggest a review and abandonment of some of the bitter purposes formed under the reign of excited passion.

GEN. GRANT'S POSITION.

The question of General GRANT's political position—whether he sustains the President, is favorable to Congress, or whether he has formed any definite opinions on the aspect of public affairs at all—is the absorbing problem of the day. Each party claims and tries to appropriate him, and each is snubbed in turn. The last endeavor to get the General to commit himself was made by Mr. M. C. KERR, "my policy" candidate for Congress in the Second District of Indiana. He stated, in a public speech, that Brevet Brigadier General HILLYER, at one time Inspector General on GRANT's staff, had informed him in a letter that General GRANT was a firm supporter of the President. General GRESHAM, the candidate opposed to Mr. KERR, wrote to General GRANT to ascertain what foundation General HILLYER had for his assertion. In response Colonel BADEAU, Gen. GRANT's corresponding aid-de-camp, enclosed to General GRESHAM a note sent to Colonel HILLYER by General GRANT himself, in which the Colonel gets rapped over the knuckles in a way he will remember for some time. The note concludes with this scathing rebuke:

"You, nor no man living, is authorized to speak for me in political matters, and I ask you to desist in the future. I want every man to vote according to his own judgment, without influence from me."

Our Sphynx is reticent, mysterious and incomprehensible as ever. The managing men of the opposing parties should offer a large reward to any modern Œdipus who finds a way to solve the riddle.

ONE WEEK.

One week more will close the campaign in Pennsylvania. No former one within our experience has been conducted on a line more distinctly drawn than this. The argument has been direct and unvarying, and we believe that the result will prove it has been overwhelmingly convincing. While it is not to be questioned that even down to the last day and hour conquests might and probably will be made to the cause of the Amendment and the Union party, the intervening time, we think, should be mainly devoted to those details necessary to give full effect to the efforts that have already been made. To insure the presence to the last man of all who will vote the Union ticket should be the leading purpose. We need not particularize what the arrangements should be. It is an eminently practical matter. We need not say that unless everything that is necessary to get Union voters to the polls is done, the reward of previous labor will be doubtful—it will be sowing without due preparations for gathering.

To Union men, therefore, we say: Make certain the attendance of Union voters at the polls on Tuesday, the 9th of October. Prepare for the emergency which bad weather may impose. Attend to the details, and do the work thoroughly.

ORGANIZE IN THE TOWNSHIPS.

What are the friends of the cause of freedom and justice doing in the country districts, towards preparing for the final attack on the 9th of October? In some districts, we know, our friends are thoroughly organized, but in others, we learn, there are imperfect organizations. Between the rivers there are districts in which our gains would be larger were the proper effort made by more thorough and perfect action. Vigilance Committees are well enough in their way if properly officered, but where this is not the case, every true Union man should constitute himself a committee of vigilance, and see that his neighbor votes and votes right. Don't permit the great demonstrations of Tuesday and Thursday to pass by without an abundant yield of good fruit. Remember what supineness brought upon us after the great Fremont demonstration in 1856. Allegheny county can and will roll up ten thousand majority in favor of the reconstruction policy of the people.

THE health of the French Emperor continues to be a matter of much solicitude. In addition to his regular physician and personal friend, Dr. CONNEAU, he has commanded the services of the three most eminent men in the profession in Paris—Drs. RAYER, NELATON and RICORD—a fact that would seem to indicate a case that is almost desperate. Perhaps it is more likely to insure one. RICORD is an American by birth, a native of Baltimore, but went to Paris when he was nineteen years old. He is now about sixty, and wears in his button hole the ribbon of the Legion of Honor. His income is $100,000 a year; nevertheless he is constantly in hot water and debt. Although he could not save himself from prison lately, he is expected to save the Emperor's life.

THE Paris correspondent of the London Times has been put out of humor by the ovation given the Americans by the Russians, and thinks the whole thing, more especially the speeches by the Americans, are quite out of taste, and the writer marvels "at this strange coupling of the most free and active people in the world with a nation having but a varnish of civilization, with despotism for its political regime, and communism for its social state." Paris letters say this alliance and the proceedings going on in Russia are not regarded with favor there.

THE "MY POLICY" SHIBBOLETH.—There is a noisy though very powerful faction who profess to base their creed and action on the policy of ANDREW JOHNSON. What is that policy? Has it ever been defined? Will somebody oblige us with a clear exposition of its scope, doctrines and principles. We believe its most ardent and fanatical supporters, alike with those who pretend to sustain it for their own selfish ends are utterly unable to do so. My Policy is a political "Mrs. Harris." We "don't believe there's no such an article."

THE FIRST REBUKE.—No commanding officer in the army was so kind and considerate to the members of his staff as General GRANT. We have heard one of them declare that he never knew the General to address a harsh or hasty word to any of them. The first rebuke he has been known to administer is in the sharp note to General HILLYER published elsewhere. It is the more significant, from the fact that as "Colonel" HILLYER, he was GRANT's most confidential and favored friend, while Mrs. GRANT and Mrs. HILLYER are on terms of close intimacy.

GEN. BANKS' SPEECH.—In the confusion incident to a transfer of matter, a transposition occurred in General BANKS's speech in a portion of our edition yesterday, which the intelligent reader will discover and correct. The latter half of the second paragraph, and first part of the third paragraph should have been inserted after the first four lines of the first paragraph.

The Southern Press.

In our issue of yesterday, we called the attention of our readers to the efforts of Captain A. W. Tourge, of North Carolina, to secure material aid for the support of a loyal journal in that State. This gentleman informs us that he is meeting with but moderate success in his enterprise here. We think that something more than good wishes should be given to those who have the moral backbone to publish loyal papers in the lately rebellious States. The importance of the undertaking cannot be over-estimated. If we are ever to have loyal and patriotic States at the South, the people must be educated up to a higher standard of political belief than they have heretofore known or recognized. Brain and muscle of all kinds must compete freely for the prizes of wealth, power and position. The skilled mechanic of Pittsburgh must be free to go to any of those States and enter his skill, genius and strength in the race for wealth and civic honor, and not be obliged to carry the weight of public scorn and hate in the contest. He must be free to rise if he has ability, or continue the honest laborer if he have not, and yet know that he is bound down by no class exclusiveness or Southern pride. This can only be effected by the influence of a fearless and high-toned press. The men who are establishing loyal presses at the South should be looked on by our patriots, as political and moral missionaries. The battle they are fighting is for the upbuilding of our Government in those States again upon a sure and firm foundation and the complete renovation of moral and social life among all classes. Of course, there must be other agencies. Men of the North whose life blood has been purified by the breath of free freedom must go to the South with their energy, skill and capital and give form and consistency to Southern society. The South, if restored to the Union at all, must first be de-Northernized and nationalized instead. In this work the press must be the avant courier, for without its influence the tone of public sentiment can never be changed. Let the loyal press of the South have all the support which a generous and prosperous people can give.

CORRECTION.

PITTSBURGH, PA., September 28, 1866.
To the Editor of the Commercial.

I desire to correct a statement made in your paper of yesterday, in regard to the election of Vice President of the National Union Executive Committee. You state as follows:

The meeting then proceeded to ballot for First Vice President. General Thomas S. Allen, of Wisconsin, and General John McNeil, of Missouri, were nominated. The meeting proceeded to ballot, with the following result:

General McNeil .... 13 votes.
General Allen .... 13 votes.

The vote was declared a tie. A member from Wisconsin then changed his vote in favor of General McNeil, when that gentleman was declared the choice of the committee.

I nominated General McNeil. After the tie vote, I made a few remarks appealing to the Committee to elect General McNeil because he had been beheaded by the President, and also was the man for the place. Then General Allen magnanimously withdrew his name in favor of General McNeil, who was then declared the choice of the committee. No Wisconsin man went back on General Allen. He is true and honest. I make this correction to do justice to Wisconsin. I am, &c.,

F. L. CRAMER.

A. J.—A Jack, upon which Balaam sat, stopped on his way and delivered a speech which ran thus: "Am I not thine own Ass upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? Was I ever wont to do so unto thee?"

This Jack was content with few I's, and with them saw the danger which was before him and halted, but A. J. the second, though he has many I's will not see his danger, but notwithstanding his many I's and many horns, there is a sword in the hand of Justice which will smite him, and also Billy the Scribe who sits upon this Argus.

HEAR WHAT THE REV. ISAAC AIKEN SAYS IN RELATION TO THE Greatest Dyspepsia Medicine OF THE AGE. "COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE."

[From the Presbyterian Banner.]
JOSEPH FLEMING, Druggist, No. 84 Market street, Pittsburgh:—I take great pleasure in stating that, after having suffered from Dyspepsia for about fifteen years, at some periods much more than others, I have been entirely cured by the use of COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE. My friends know that of late years my case was an extreme one. I had great suffering from eating any kind of food, and on an average would vomit about one-third of my meals, in a sour, undigested mass. When the severe attacks would come, I would lose all strength, and be utterly helpless. Some of these attacks would be so severe, that for days together I could not retain anything on my stomach save a little dry toast and tea. For years I knew not what it was to pass five consecutive hours without intense pain. From the time I took the first dose of this medicine, I ceased vomiting, gradually all soreness passed away and flesh and strength returned; and ever since I have been able to eat any kind of food set upon the table.
Six months have now passed without symptoms of the return of the disease. The case was considered by all, even physicians, so marvelous, that for a time it was feared it might be fictitious; but I am now so well convinced that I have been not merely relieved, but permanently cured, that I can conscientiously recommend Coe's Dyspepsia Cure to all the victims of Dyspepsia. THE Emerson Piano.
There are many persons who desire to possess a Piano, who do not feel able to go to the expense of the costliest make of instrument, and yet would only have a good, substantial one. Such customers visit our rooms almost daily, and to meet their wants we have made a most careful examination of all the lowest priced Pianos that are made in the United States. The result is that we have found the Pianos made by W. P. Emerson, to be the best Pianos for the price, and the cheapest good Pianos that are made. They are most substantially built, on the soundest acoustic principles; the wood used is of the best quality and properly seasoned; the tone is rich, round, full and powerful, and the touch easy and elastic: each one is provided with the full iron frame, and overstrung bass. They will stand well in tune and wear well in every particular; this we know from actual experience. The difference in price between the Emerson Piano and the more costly makes, is caused by the most rigid economy in the manufacture consistent with excellence, and a saving of labor on those parts which neither effect the tone or durability. We do not pretend that the "EMERSON" is the lowest priced piano that is made, for there are many that can be bought at a less price. Such pianos (which do not deserve to be called pianos,) we do not keep, as we have found out by our own and others' experience that they are so poorly made that they soon give way, lose their tone, become harsh and discordant, and give no satisfaction to a customer, but are a constant source of expense and annoyance. A piano of this kind is a bad investment, and really the dearest piano any one can buy. We do not, and will not keep them for sale. Finding the "EMERSON" to be such desirable Pianos we at once secured the exclusive agency for them for Pittsburgh and surrounding country, and having made special contracts for a regular weekly supply for a long time to come, we can offer them at unusually advantageous rates. All persons desiring the best cheap Piano in the market, should not fail to examine the "Emersons" before purchasing any other kind. Liberal discount to clergymen, teachers, and cash customers. Send for circular and prices.

WANTED—AGENTS.
WANTED.—AGENTS FOR THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS OF THE REBELLION; Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical. Splendidly Illustrated with over 300 fine Portraits and Beautiful Engravings.
There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, and will not get embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.
These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.
The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscenses of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege and battlefield adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.
Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit and authentic history, are skilfully interwoven in this work of literary art.
This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partizan works, and want something humorous, romantic and startling. We have agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars and see our terms and proof of the above assertion. Address NATIONAL PUBLISHING CO., se13-TM4* 507 Minor St., Philadelphia, Pa.

NASBY.

Mr. Nasby Arrives at Home—How His People Were Outraged.

[From the Toledo Blade.]
POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS,
(which is in the Stait of Kentucky,)
September 16, 1866.

I found my flock in a terrible state uv depresshun, at which, when I wuz told the cause, I didn't wonder at. There wuz, back uv the corners on the side hill, over towards Garrettstown about three quarters uv a mile this side uv Abbott's grocery (we estimate distance here from one grocery to another), five or six families of niggers. The males of this settlement had all bin in the Federal army ez soljers, and hed saved their pay and bounty and sich, and hed bought uv a disgustid Confedrit, who proposed to find in Mexico that freedum which wuz denied him here, and who bein determined to leave the country, didn't care who he sold his plantashen to, so ez he got greenbax, three hundred acres, which they hed divided up and built cabins onto 'em, and wuz a cultivatin it. There wuz a store keeper at the Corners who come here from Illinoy, and who hed bin so greedy uv gain, and so graspin ez to buy their prodoose uv em, and sell em sich supplies ez they needed. These accursed suns and dawters of Ham wuz a livin there in comfort. The thing wuz a gettin unendoorable. They came to the Corners dressed in clothes without patches, and white shirts and hats on; and the females in dresses and hoops under em; in short, these apes hed assoomed so much uv the style uv the people that ef it hadn't bin for their black faces they wood hev passed for folks.

Our people become indignant, and ez soon ez I returned I wuz requested to call a meetin to consider the matter, which I ov course did.

The horn wuz tootid, and the entire Corners wuz assembled, eggsceptin the Illinoy store-keeper who didn't attend to us much. I stated briefly and elokently (I have improved in public speakin sense I heered His Serene Highness, Androo, all the way from Washington to Looisville), and asked the brethren to ease their minds.

Squire Gavitt had observed the progress uv them niggers with the most profoundest alarm. He hed noticed em comin to the Corners dressed better nor his family dressed, and sellin the produx ov their land to that wretch—

At this point the Illinoy store-keeper come in, and the Squire proceeded:

—he shood say Mr. Pollock, and he'hed made inquiries and found that one family hed sold three hundred and seventy-five dollars worth ov truck this season, uv which they hed laid out for clothes and books tu hundred dollars, leevin em one hundred and seventy-five dollars in cash, which was more money than he hed made sense the accursed Linkin passed the emancipashun proclamation. And what did driv the iron into his soul wuz the fact that wun ov them niggers was his nigger. "The money they hev," pursood the Squire, "is my money, that man worth $1500 is my man; his wife is my woman, her children my children—"

"That's a literal fact," shouted Joe Bigler, a drunken returned Confederate sojer, "they hev your nose eggsactly, and ther're the meanest yaller brats in the settlement."

This unhappy remark endid in a slite unpleasantness, which resulted in the 'Squire's bein' carried out minus one ear, and his nose smashed. Joseph remarked that he wantid to git at him ever sense he wouldn't lend him a half dollar two months ago. He was now satisfied, and hoped this little episode wouldn't mar the harmony uv the meetin.

Elder Smathers observed that he had notist with pain that them niggers alluz hed money, and wuz alluz drest well, while we, their sooperiors, hed no money and nothin to boast uv in the way uv close. He would say—

Pollock the Illinoy store-keeper put in. Ef the Elder wood work ez them niggers wuz workin, and not loaf over the half the time at Bascom's grocery, he might possibly hev a full soot uv close, and now and then a dollar in money. It wuz here ez it wuz in all strikly Dimekratic communities, the grocery keepers absorb all the floatin capital, and—

He was not allowed to proceed. Bascom flung a chair at him, and four or five uv his constitoonts fell on him. He wuz carried out for dead. Bascom remarked that he wuz for the utmost freedom uv speech, but in the discussion uv a great constooshunel question no Illinoy abolishnist shood put in his yawp. The patriotic remark wuz cheered, but when Bascom ask't the whole meetin out to drink, the applause wuz uproarious. Bascom alluz gets applause—he knows how to move an audience.

Deekin Pogram sed he'd bore with them niggers till his patience wuz gin out. He endoored it till last Sunday. After service he felt pensive, ruther, and walked out towards Garrettstown, meditatin as he went on the sermon he had listened to that mornin on the necessity uv the spread of the Gospil. Mournin in spirit over the condition of the heathen, he didn't notis where he wuz til he found hisself in the nigger settlement, and in front uv one uv their houses. There he saw a site wich paralized him. There wuz a nigger wich wuz wunst his nigger, wich Linkin deprived him uv, settin under his porch, and a profanin the Holy Bible by teachin his child to read it! Kin this be endoored? the Deekin asked.

Deekin Perkins sed he must bear his unworthy testimony agin these disturbers. They hed, he knowd whereof he spoke, hired a female woman from Massachusetts to teach their children! He had bin in their skoolroom and with his own eyes witnest it.

Bascom, the grocery keeper, hed bin shocked at their conduct. He was convinct that a nigger was a beast. They come to the corners to sell the produx of their lands—do they spend their money at his bar? Nary! They spend num uv it at the store uv a disorganizer from Illinoy, who is here interferin with the bizness uv troo Southern men, but he hed never seed one uv 'em inside his door. He had no patience with 'em, and believed sunthin should be done to rid the community uv sich yoosless inhabitance. Ef they ever git votes they'r agin us. No man who dodges my bar ever votes straight Dimocracy.

Ginral Punt moved that this meetin do to-wunst proceed to the settlement and clean 'em out. They wuz a reproach to Kentucky. Of course, ez they were heathens and savages, sich goods ez they hed wood fall to the righteous, uv whom we wuz which, and he insisted upon a fair divide. All he wanted wuz a bureau and a set uv chairs he had seen.

The motion wuz amendid to inclood Pollock, the Illinoy storekeeper, and it wuz at wunst acted upon.

Pollock wuz reconstructed first. Filled with zeal for the right, his door was busted in, and in a jiffy the goods which he wuz a contaminatin our people with, wuz distributed among the people, each takin sich az sooted em. Wun man sejested that ez they wuz made by Yankees, and brought south by Yankees, that there was contaminashen in the tuch of em, and that they be burned, but he wuz hooted down, our people seein a distinckshun. The contaminashen wuz in payin for em—gittin em gratooitously took the cuss off.

Elated, the crowd started for the settlement. I never saw more zeal manifested. A half an hour brought us there, and then a scene ensood which filled me with joy onspeekable. The niggers wuz routed out and their goods wuz divided after em. The Bibles and skool books wuz destroyed fust, coz we had no use for em; then cheers, tables and buros, clothin and beddin wuz distributed. A wooman had the impudence to beg for suthin she fansed, when the riteshus zeel uv my next door nabor, Pettus, biled over, and he struck her. Her husband forgettin his color, struck Pettus, and the outrage was completed. A nigger hed razed his hand against a white man.

The insulted Caucashen blood riz, and in less than a minit the bodies uv six male Ethiopians waz a danglin in the air, and the bodies uv six Ethiopian wimin wuz layin prostrate on the earth. The children wuz spared, for they wuz all young, and not hevin bin taught to read so that they could not forgit it ef kept carefully from books, they kin be brought up in the proper speer, ez servance to their brethern. (By the way, the inspired writer must hev yoozed this word "brethern" in this connection figeratively. The nigger bein a beast cannot be our brother.) Some may censure us for too much zeal in this matter, but what else cood we hev done? We are high-toned, and can't stand everything. These niggers hed no right to irritate us by their presence. They knowd our feelins on the subjick, and by buyin land and remainin in the visinity they kindled the flame which resulted ez it did. Ez they did in Memphis and New Orleans they brought their fate onto their own head.

Pollock recovered, and with the Yankee schoolmarm who wuz a teachin the niggers, left for the North yesterday. It speeks well for the forbearance uv our people that they wuz permitted to depart at all.

DICKSON COUNTY,

AT

CHANCERY SALE.

In pursuance of decrees of the Chancery Court at Nashville, Tennessee, in the case of A. C. Stockard, Administrator, &c., vs. the Heirs and Creditors of James L. Bell, deceased, I will sell at public auction at the COURT HOUSE, in the city of NASHVILLE, on SATURDAY, October 13, 1866,

The tracts of IRON LAND containing, together, 7,210 Acres, and known as the WORLEY FURNACE LANDS, lying on the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, in Dickson county, about forty-five miles west of Nashville.

Worley Furnace was originally built in 1844, by Montgomery Bell, and it was run from that time until about 1859. There is an inexhaustible amount of the finest quality of ORE close to the Furnace, and the metal manufactured always commanded the highest price. Over Four Thousand Acres of the lands are heavily covered with fine timber, and the greater portion of the remainder is growing thickly with young trees, which will soon be suitable for coal.

The Nashville and Northwestern Railroad runs through the tract, making it within easy distance of Nashville. Any further information in regard to these lands will be furnished on application to the undersigned at Nashville.

THE TERMS OF SALE are One, Two and Three Years Credit, with interest from the day of sale. Notes required, with personal security, and lien retained. Sale free from redemption.

FINANCIAL.

First Mortgage BONDS

OF THE

Central PACIFIC R. R. CO.,

OF CALIFORNIA,

Interest at the Rate of Six per Cent. per annum, payable Semi-Annually, on the First days of January and July.

Principal and Interest payable in U. S. Gold Coin in the City of New York.

Amount of Issue, $7,336,000

In Coupon Bonds of $1,000 each.

The Bonds have 30 Years to run, and are secured by a First Mortgage, constituting an absolute prior lien on that portion of the Road, Equipments, Franchises, and Entire Property of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, located in the State of California, and extending from Sacramento City to the California State Line, forming a part of the Great Pacific Railroad Route, adopted and aided by the United States Government.

The amount of these First Mortgage Bonds to be issued per mile is limited by law to the amount of United States Bonds allowed and issued to aid the construction of the Road, and the Mortgage by which they are secured is declared by Act of Congress to constitute a lien prior and superior to that of the United States Government.

The aid received from the Government (in amount equal to this First Mortgage) is economically and judiciously applied to the construction and equipment of the Road, together with nearly $7,000,000, received from Stock Subscriptions and other sources. The first Mortgage therefore amounts to but about 35 per cent. of the actual cost and value of the Property which it covers.

The Road is now completed, equipped and running from Sacramento City to Alta, a distance of 73 miles, and the earnings for the three months ending August 1st, were as follows, viz:

MAY,	1866	$65,115 83
JUNE	"	67,429 78
JULY	"	85,000 00

IN GOLD.

The earnings are steadily increasing, and are estimated at over $100,000 in Gold for the month of August—the official report for that month not having been received at this date.

The construction of the Road is going vigorously forward—24 miles additional being nearly ready for the cars,—and it will probably be in full operation to the California State Line—156 miles from Sacramento City—during the Summer of 1867, when its earnings must be very large, as the entire trade of Nevada, and a large proportion of that of Utah, Idaho and Montana must pass over its line. It has been shown by reliable statistics that in 1863 over $13,000,000 in Gold was paid for freighting goods from California to Nevada alone.

This part of the great Pacific Railroad Route is destined to be one of the most profitable lines of railroad in the world, and its First Mortgage Bonds are among the best secured and most desirable investments ever offered.

Over $1,000,000 has already been expended in grading beyond the point to which the road is now running, and the iron is bought and paid for sufficient to lay the track the entire distance to the State Line.

The Road has been completed and equipped thus far without the sale of a single dollar of its First Mortgage Bonds, and they are now offered to the public for the first time, after the earnings of the Road have reached the sum of $100,000 per month in Gold, only about 25 per cent. of which is required for operating expenses.

The Bonds are offered at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st, in Currency. Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country.

Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes, National Bank Notes or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by Express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive punctual attention.

CITY MATTERS.

SOLDIERS' MEETING.—The Society composed of the members of the 102d Pennsylvania regiment, will meet in the City Building this evening.

OVERLOOKED.—Among the public houses of the city which were handsomely decorated and illuminated during the week, was the Rush House, at the depot, which was overlooked in the general description. Mr. Rush made an extensive and patriotic display, and did not deserve to be overlookd as it has been.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Brevet Major Wm. Lewis, of Medina, Ohio, was knocked down yesterday afternoon, near Oakland, and robbed of his gold watch and his pocket book containing two thousand dollars—six one hundred dollar bills and the balance in twenties and fifties. This is undoubtedly the boldest transaction that has occured in this city for years, and the police are making efforts to arrest the perpetrators.

THE BEAVER DELEGATION.—We neglected to make the special mention it deserved of the delegation which came to the great Convention of the Boys in Blue from Beaver county. The delegation numbered four hundred and two representatives of our Union armies, and paraded under the command of Colonel Evans. They came here on the steamer Pine Grove, but unfortunately arrived rather late in the day, and after the distribution of torches had been made. They joined in the parade, however, and were loudly applauded, though their part of the line might not have been so brilliantly illuminated as others.

SECOND WARD "BOYS IN BLUE."—The "Boys in Blue" of the Second ward, Pittsburgh, held an adjourned meeting last night, at Wilkins' Hall, Fourth street. The President, Lieut. W. B. Cook presided, and J. D. McKee acted as Secretary.

On motion, it was resolved, that the Club participate in the re-union of the "Boys in Blue" and Geary Clubs at City Hall, to-night.

After transacting some miscellaneous business, the meeting adjourned to meet again at the Second Ward School House, on the corner of Ross and Diamond streets, this evening, at seven o'clock, when the Club will march in procession to the Hall. All the members are requested to be present.

Presbyterian Synod.

The Synod of Allegheny of the Presbyterian (Old School) Church, met on Thursday evening, in the Central Church of Allegheny. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. W. F. Kean, the retiring Moderator, after which the Rev. A. Williams, D. D., was elected Moderator. The meeting then adjourned until yesterday morning at nine o'clock. At that hour the Synod reassembled, when half an hour was spent in devotional exercises. The usual committees were appointed, and the routine business began. The reports of the Presbyteries were then made, which were very encouraging. Rev. Dr. Schenck, of Philadelphia, by invitation, addressed the Synod upon the subject of the various Boards of the Church. The place of the next meeting was fixed at Greenville, Pennsylvania. After transacting some routine business the Synod adjourned. The sessions will be interesting, and the public generally are invited to attend.

Republican Meetings.

A meeting of Union Republicans will be held at the School House, at Mount Washington, this evening, at seven and a half o'clock. Hon. J. K. Moorhead, C. B. M. Smith, Esq., J. J. Siebeneck, Esq., and others will address the meeting.

The Republican Vigilance Committee of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, and all others favorable to the election of General Geary, are requested this evening, at seven and a half o'clock, to meet at the Columbia Engine House.

The First ward Geary Club and Union Republicans will hold a meeting this evening, at half-past seven o'clock, at the School House. A good attendance is desired.

The Union Republican meeting which was called to take place at Oakland, on Monday next, is postponed until further notice.

Criminal Court.

The Criminal Court met yesterday morning at nine o'clock, Judges Mellon and Brown on the bench. The following business was transacted:

Charles Brown was arraigned on an indictment for the larceny of a melodeon. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Brown was convicted last week of robbing the tavern of Eli Wycoff, in South Pittsburgh. There is still another charge pending against him.

Charles Eberhardt was brought up on a charge of selling liquor without a license. He plead nol. contendere, and was sentenced by the Court to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine of ten dollars.

Charles Dean was tried on an indictment for committing an assault and battery upon the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, with attempt to commit an outrage. The defendant was a boarder at the house of the prosecutrix, in the First Ward, Allegheny. Jury out.

Court then adjourned until this morning.

Rowdyism in Allegheny.

A number of disturbances occurred in Allegheny on Thursday, between persons who got jubilant no doubt over the procession. A man named Charles Snyder, entered Young's saloon, in the Diamond, and upon being refused a drink, attacked the proprietor, and inflicted severe injuries. He then broke some windows and some glassware behind the bar. He was arrested, conveyed to the lock up, and held to bail for a hearing.

At the Allegheny Hotel, opposite the Railroad Station, on Federal street, a serious disturbance took place. Four men assaulted another man, seriously injuring him. The door of the bar room was bursted open, and the windows and glass were demolished. No arrests have been made.

A fight occurred in the evening at Walker's tavern, on East Lane, in which a large number of men were engaged. One man received a severe stab above the left eye, but it is considered not of a serious nature. He was taken into a drug store near by, where his wounds were dressed. There has no arrests been made, as yet.

Affray in Lawrenceville—A Boy Dangerously Wounded.

Yesterday afternoon, a difficulty occurred at Lawrenceville, between a number of white men and negroes, during which a young lad named Wm. Crookshanks was shot in the forehead and severely injured. It appears that five young colored men visited Iron City Park, on horseback, for the purpose of hearing Fred. Douglas's speech, and afterwards took a ride through the borough. When nearly opposite the Arsenal walls, they were insulted by some white men in a wagon, when one of their number drew a pistol and fired, the ball entering the forehead of Wm. Crookshanks, a lad aged sixteen years, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. Three of the negroes named A. Carter, Robert Jackson and A. Sidney were immediately arrested and taken before Esquire Jauncey, who committed them to jail, in default of bail, to answer a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. A large crowd of persons collected in front of the office, and it was feared for a short time that the prisoners would be treated with violence by the excited throng.

Yesterday evening two men named Charles Shaw and Wm. Earnest, were arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the fray. They will have a hearing this morning.

Meeting of the County Executive Committee.

The Allegheny County Union Republican Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the office of Wm. Owens, Jr., No. 147 Fourth street; the Chairman, John W. Riddell, Esq., presided, and Col. Thomas M. Bayne officiated as Secretary.

On motion, the use of City Hall was granted for a meeting in the evening, at which Fred. Douglass, the colored orator, would speak.

A number of bills, contracted by the Resident Military Committee, of expenses incurred by the holding of the Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention, were presented. On motion the bills were referred to an Auditing Committee of two, consisting of John W. Riddell, Esq., and John A. Myler, Esq.

The Committee appointed to make arrangements for the mass convention, to be held at Kittanning, on Tuesday next, October 2d, were instructed to request the Superintendent of the Allegheny Valley Railroad to issue excursion tickets to Kittanning on that day.

On motion, James W. Murray, Esq., of Allegheny City, was made a member of the Executive Committee.

It was stated that a grand Mass Convention of the Republicans of this and adjoining counties, would be held at McKeesport, on Thursday next, October 4th, when a beautiful silk flag would be presented by the ladies of McKeesport to the largest delegation present. The following distinguished speakers are announced to be present: Governor A. G. Curtin, Major General John W. Geary, Hon. L. W. Hall, John W. Forney, Esq., Hon. John P. Penney and others.

The Committee then adjourned to meet again this afternoon, at two o'clock, at the headquarters, City Hall, at which time and place they will meet daily until election day.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Manager Hess, determined to please the young folks, as well as those old folks for whom it is inconvenient to attend at night, has prevailed upon those popular artistes, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams, to appear at the matinee this afternoon in one of their most attractive plays. In the evening, the charming new Irish drama of the "Coonie Soogan" will be repeated for the last time, in which the Williamses will make their farewell bow.

THEATER.—In obedience to a very generally expressed desire, Manager Henderson will this afternoon reproduce the beautiful scenic play, "The Naiad Queen," with Ettie Henderson as "Lurline." The play is handsomely presented, and is pleasingly attractive. In the evening, Mr. Frank Mayo, the young California actor, who has made a very favorable impression with our theater goers, will make his farewell appearance, in a favorite character. Next week those popular artistes, the Florences, will commence an engagement.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—At this popular place of amusement, as usual on Saturday evenings, a good bill is presented, replete with mirth and melody. The nautical drama of "Black Eyed Susan" will conclude the evening's entertainment.

S. B. HOWE'S CIRCUS.—The pavillion in which the performances of this company are given, is located in Diamond Square, Allegheny City, the street cars passing the door. To-day the final performance will be given—a matinee at 2 o'clock, P. M., and the closing performance in the evening at 7½ o'clock. The procession yesterday was a brilliant affair, differing entirely from the usual character of such parades, and will be repeated this morning over the following streets: From the Bridge to Penn street, from Penn to the river, up Water to Grant street, through Grant to Penn, and up Penn to Mechanic street to the bridge, thence over the river to the place of exhibition.

MASONIC HALL NEXT WEEK.—The Spaulding Brothers Swiss Bell Ringers will occupy Masonic Hall next week, and give every evening one of their inestimable concerts. Our Eastern exchanges speak in glorious terms of their performances, which are pronounced rare musical treats. Miss Georgie Dean Spaulding, the celebrated harpist and vocalist, is a member of the troupe, as is also Miss Kate L. Hutchinson, daughter of the late Judson J. Hutchinson, of the original Hutchinson family. These ladies are accomplished vocalists, and are assisted by John E. and Wm. P. Spaulding and "that humorous Watson." As their style of entertainment is chaste and pleasing, they will doubtless be greeted with large audiences during their stay.

ASTHMA—A spasmodic affection of the Bronchial Tubes. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will in some cases give immediate relief. For Colds, Coughs, and Throat Disease, the Troches have proved their efficacy.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, September 28—P. M.

The New York quotations, received at noon to-day, indicate a slight improvement in Governments, and still another advance in Railways, particularly in Cleveland and Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Erie—the latter rising to 78⅝. The following were the rates: Gold 144⅞, Eighty-ones 111⅝, Five-twenties 111½, new ditto 108⅝, Ten-forties 99, Seven-thirties 106, Michigan Southern 85⅞, Cleveland and Pittsburgh 89⅞, Fort Wayne 107¼, Erie 78⅝, Chicago and Rock Island 112⅝, Chicago and Northwestern 36¼, and Preferred 70½, Western Union Telegraph 56⅝.

—The local stock market was devoid of any transactions, and there is very little inquiry for any class of local securities. The money market was very active to-day. The offerings at most of the discount houses were more than could be accommodated.

The Boston Advertiser of yesterday says:

"Mining shares were variable and generally lower. The most activity was displayed in Franklin, which opened at 58, but on sales of 1,385 shares the market receded, the last sale at the morning session being at 56¾, a decline of 3¼ since yesterday morning. Copper Falls opened at 45⅝ and sold down to 44—a decline of 3¼. Hancock was also lower, selling at 21a 21¼—a decline of 2⅝. Pewabic declined 1¼; Quincy was firm at 52½; Minnesota was steady at 17½; Bay State declined 1. There were some exceptions to the general tenency of the market—the most noticeable of which were Calumet, which advanced 2, and Concord, which advanced 1, both closing firm, with no stock offering at quotations. St. Clair was also steady at 8⅞a8⅝.

"At the open board the market was quiet but stronger, a more confident feeling prevailing. Calumet sold up to 33, an advance of 2 on the morning board, and closed at 34 bid and no stock offering. Concord advanced ¼, selling at 5¾. Hancock was firmer without sales. Franklin recovered its lost ground and sold up to 59, an advance of 1 over the highest regular sale at the morning board. Copper Falls advanced ¾. Bay State was a little weaker, selling down to 15⅝. The following quotations were made at the close: Concord, 5a5¼; Calumet, 34 bid; Copper Falls, 44a45; Franklin, 58½a59; Hancock, 22a22⅝; Petherick, 6a6¼; Pewabic, 36½a38; Quincy, 52¾a54; Huron, 45a46, with sales after the board at the latter price.

—The Cincinnati Gazette cautions the public to look out for forged checks these times. It says that Messrs. J. R. Morton & Co., received from their correspondent in St. Louis five checks, amounting in the aggregate to about $800, purporting to have been drawn by R. W. Booth & Co., and other hardware houses in this city, on their banks. The checks are all forgeries. This is a new dodge. It is not customary to dispose of checks of this character abroad, but we suppose the forgers offered a plausible excuse for the proceeding. At any rate they succeeded. Bankers should take warning from this, as the check forgers are on their usual tour.

—The Producers' Bank of Chicago, which failed a few days since, turns out badly. The creditors are in court, and the developments indicate a very decided swindle.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

(Pittsburgh Commercial's Report.)

SATURDAY, September 29, 1866.—Business yesterday was not very active. The sales made were on a limited scale. The weather was decidedly pleasant. Our rivers are again bank full, there being plenty of water to all points. The tonnage, however, in port is large, while freights are scarce, the principal shipments consisting of our own manufactures. Among the boats loading were the following: For Cincinnati, Pine Grove, Quickstep and Spray. The two former will depart to-day. The latter will lay over until Tuesday. For St. Louis we note the following: Belle Vernon and Kenton. The Argonaut No. 2 took her departure last evening. The fine packet W. A. Caldwell, is announced for Arkansas River direct; she will go through without reshipping. The packets Ezra Porter and Importer are announced for New Orleans. The Robert Moore, Captain Carr, took her departure for Portsmouth with a fair trip. We have now a semi-weekly line between this place and Portsmouth, the Robert Moore being the Friday and the Julia No. 2 being the Tuesday packet. The boats on the slack water are doing a good business; the same remark will apply to the Allegheny River Navigation Company. Below will be found the sales that came under our notice:—

BACON—Our market contains a good supply of what comes under this head. The sales since our last were as follows: Shoulders—7,000 lbs at 17½@17¾c. Sides, ribbed, 19⅛@19¾c. Sugar Cured Hams—5,000 lbs at 25½@25¾c—a decline of ¼c ℔ lb.

LARD OIL—The market was weak, with a downward tendency. Sales of 25 bbls No. 1 at $1 65@1 67 ℔ gallon; 10 do No. 2 at $1 40@1 45.

BUTTER—The market was firm, with a good trade demand; prices have been uniform for some days under light receipts. Sales of packed at 25@28c; roll, fresh, 28@32c.

EGGS—The demand exceeds the supply and holders were firm in their views. Sales of 7 bbls at 24c½; 4 do at 25c ℔ dozen.

FEED—We continue to notice a firm market with a good demand, holders being very firm in their views. Middlings sales, 5 tons at $1 85 ℔ cwt. Sales 4 do chopped feed at $1 90.

HAY—The market was steady with a fair trade demand. Sales 12 tons baled at $23 00. Sales of loose at scale at $19 00@23 00.

GRAIN—The market has undergone no change as regards prices or demands. Among the sales we note as follows: Rye, 150 bushels at $1 00 per bushel. Oats were firm with a good local demand. Sales 600 bushels from first hands 41c. Sales 450 bush from store at 45@47c. Wheat was very firm. Sales of 175 bushels Missouri winter at $2 93; 150 do mixed, $2 6[illegible]; sales of No. 1 Spring at $2 40@2 45. Barley steady, with sales at $1 [illegible] per bushel. Corn, sales of 200 bushels from store at 85@86c per bushel.

GROCERIES—The market contains a fair supply, with a good jobbing demand at the following figures: Coffee—Rio, [illegible]@30c. Sugars—Cuba, 12@14c; Porto Rico, 13½@15½c; A, 16½@17c; B, 16½@16½c. Molasses—Porto Rico ranges from 80@90c.

In the Pittsburgh Market there has been no transactions in lumber afloat during the past week. The rains have been, for the past few days, very heavy and so general, that a large rise in the river may at once be looked for, in which case there will be a considerable amount of lumber brought here within the next ten days.
